

Hamlin named to Girl Scouts board

Hopkinton resident Pam Hamlin was appointed to the Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts Board of Directors at their annual meeting held on May 14. Hamlin will serve a two year term on the Board.

Voting Members of the Council, comprised of Regional and National Delegates, members of the Board and members of the Board Nominating and Development Committee, voted on the slate of the new Board. Board Members will serve terms ranging from one to two years.

Pam Hamlin is the President of Arnold Worldwide's headquarters office in Boston. She has spent her 22 year career as a marketer, building brands in almost every category. Hamlin joined Arnold from Leonard/Monahan where she was a partner and Director of Client Services. She was responsible for providing strategic leadership to the agency's accounts and driving new business efforts. A graduate of the Boston College Carroll School of Management, Pam was identified by the Boston Business Journal as one of the "40 under 40" top business leaders in 2003 and was accepted into the Boston Chamber of Commerce's Future Business Leaders Program. In 2008, Pam was named one of marketing's top 25 Women to Watch in North America by Ad Age. Outside the office, she is a member of the board of Dana Farber's Women's Cancers Program and the executive council of The Boston Symphony Orchestra.

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Pam Hamlin

