

ANNUAL SALE

It's cookie time... and time to celebrate Girl Scouts to mark 100th anniversary

It's time again to celebrate the annual Girl Scout cookie sale. Girl Scout entrepreneurs will be out and about in uniform selling your favorite cookies. Choose from eight tasty varieties that include: Thin Mints and Caramel DeLites to Peanut Butter Patties and Thanks-A-Lots. The annual sale kicked off last month and will culminate on March 9.

Why purchase a box of Girl Scout cookies? Besides them tasting delicious, the activity of selling cookies is directly related to the purpose of helping all girls realize their full potential and become strong, confident and resourceful citizens, according to the organization. Girl Scouts learn life skills and realize how to live up to their potential, while also having fun. All of the proceeds support Girl Scouting in local communities.

Beyond just buying Girl Scout cookies, you can join in the celebration of Girl Scouts' 100th anniversary on March 12.

"Be a part of history and celebrate the beauty, pride and power of the organization building the next generation of powerful women leaders," said the organization in a press release. "Buy a box of cookies, and help the program continue to soar as it helps girls become leaders of tomorrow."

Girl Scout cookies are $4 a box. To find out where to buy cookies in your area, visit hergirlscouts.org, click on the "cookie locator" and put in your zip code.
