Camp Cedar Hill

Director Biography
Jen Coombs

Jen Coombs, a life-long Girl Scout who loves working with children and loves to be at camp in the summer. Jen was a camper at Cedar Hill many years ago and is back for her 5th year working on the staff. From September through June she is an elementary Science teacher in Lawrence, Jen volunteers for GSEM, wearing many different hats, including: outdoor facilitator for archery, canoeing, challenges courses and snow shoeing and Gold Award advisor. When Jen manages to find some free time for herself she likes to bike, canoe, read, do puzzles and knit. She also loves spending time with her many nieces and nephews who are all over the US
